Band Highlights Year . . .

The Heritage Hills High School Band was a great success for all participants. During one of its most successful years, the band raised enough money to go to Washington, D.C. to march in a parade.

"Reflections"

On April 23, 1976, the Junior Class presented "Reflections." The Prom was aboard the riverboat "Chaperone." The Juniors, Seniors, and their dates danced down the Ohio River until midnight to the music of Mandrake. The theme proved itself true as the stars in the clear sky, along with the many lights along the shoreline, reflected onto the gentle flowing water.

VOLLEYBALL

With six seniors returning, the Patriot volleyball team promised a successful 1975 season. The female Patriots compiled a winning season of 8 - 4 with a near upset in the sectional as shown above. The Patriot team, while under the careful watch of coach B. Polster, showed a lot of team work while being able to execute a perfect play using the three basic skills of the bump, the set, and the spike.

SWIMMING Starts with the Gun

GIRLS Make Waves

Swimming is a sport in which all swimmers stand room for improvement. That's just what first year coach Suzanne Grossman set out to do. During the three long months of the swim season, the team compiled a -1 season and sent five girls to the state finals. Having a very small team, Coach Grossman had to worry about quality instead of quantity. As shown above, most of the girls specialized in their own stroke whether it was freestyle, backstroke, butterfly, or breaststroke.

While under the supervision of new coach Fran McA larnen, the boys swim team continued to improve with a steady pace. While swimming is still a relatively new sport to H.H., the boys worked hard to improve their times. Shown above are swim team managers K. Heneisen, K. Polsten, and C. Carlisle.

Freshman, Carie Carlisle was the high point man on the 1975-76 swim team. SHOWN ABOVE, he is swimming the butterfly in the 200 Individual Medley in which he was undefeated all season.

BASKET-

BALL . . .

At the beginning of the 1975-76 season the question most asked was, can a coach come out of retirement and do the job? New head coach Burke Scott answered that question and many others by directing the Patriots to a 15-5 regular season record. While the Patriots got off to a slow start, things began rolling as teamwork became the name of the game. The result was a winning season and an undefeated PAC championship.

Patriot Basketball STANDING LEFT TO RIGHT: G. Hagedorn; D. Detzer; D. Jochim; J. Wilmes; C. Arnold; C. Rice; D. Schum; R. Graman; D. Neighbors; T. Hufnagel; A. Pund; R. Pund. KNEELING: B. Scott, head coach; D. Hemmer; B. Morrison, managers; S. Merkel, assistant coach. Missing from picture is B. Ayer.

... Captures PAC TITLE

CENTER LEFT: Simple Simon says, "Put your leg in the air."
CENTER RIGHT: Introducing Heritage Hills' own Bleacher Bums. Even though they couldn't control their actions or mouths, sometimes they spurred the team on to many victories.

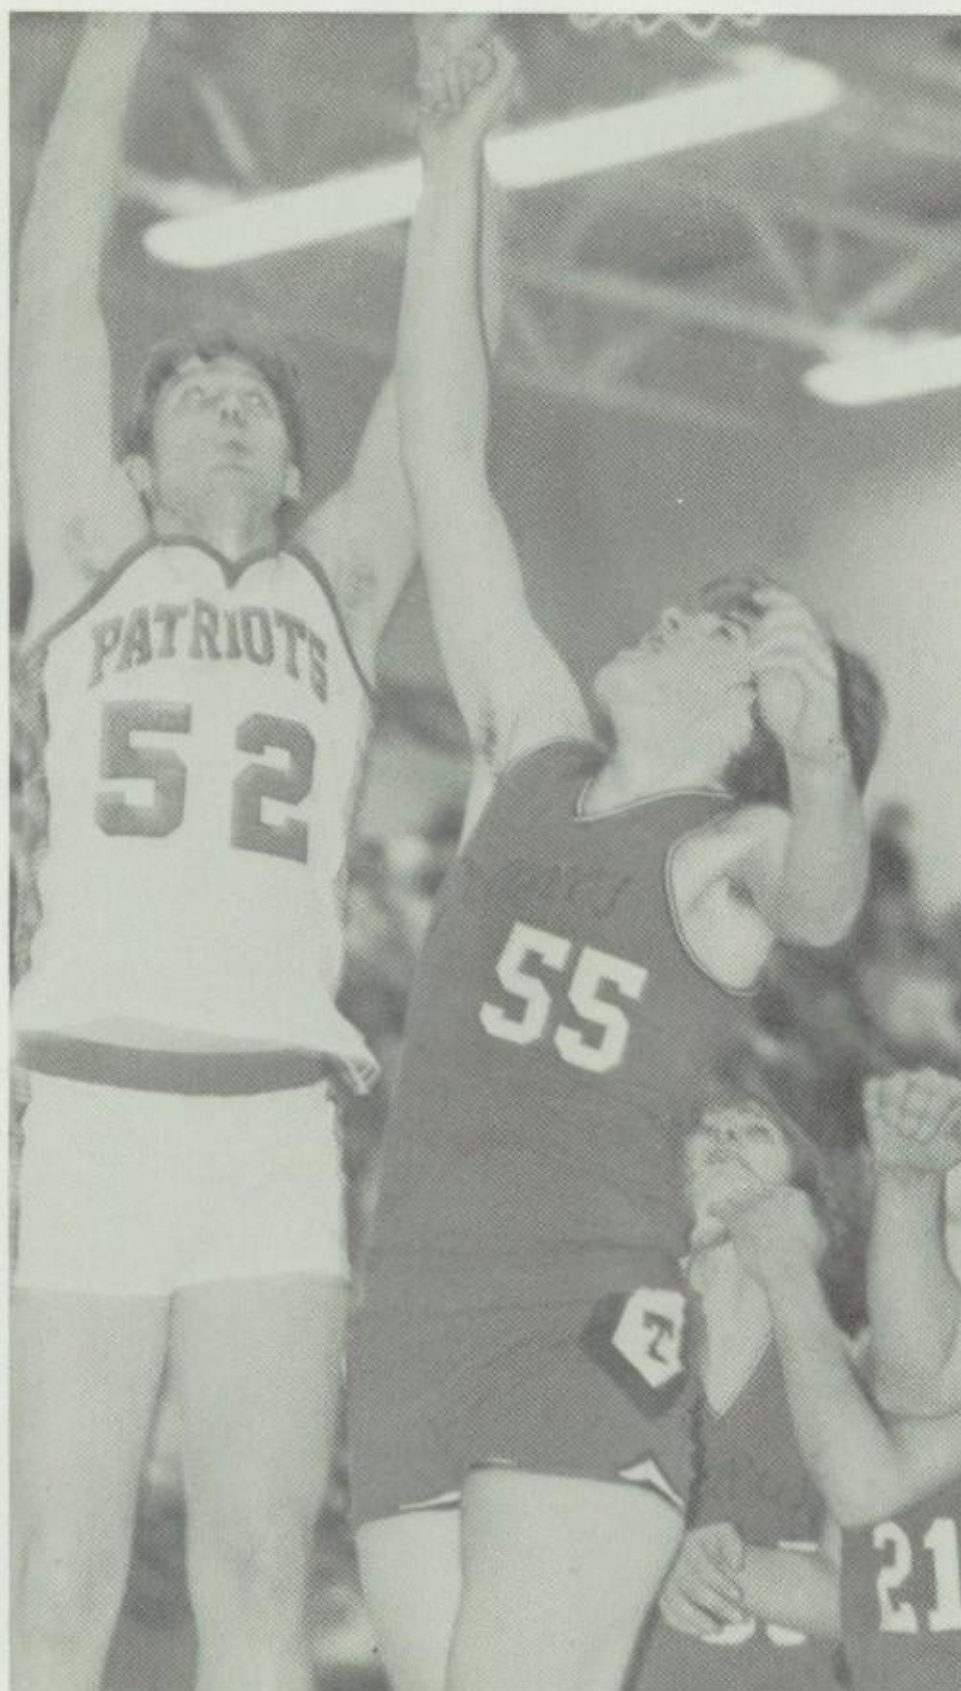

To Win Rebound

CENTER LEFT: Dan Schum muscled his way for two.
CENTER RIGHT: Gravity promises that it will come back down.
BOTTOM LEFT: M.V.P. Charlie Arnold puts up an easy score.

J.V. BASKETBALL

J.V. Basketball Team, coaches, and cheerleaders
 STANDING LEFT TO RIGHT: S. Merkel, coach; M. Schum; L. Guth; T. Berg; J. Winkler; T. Price; K. Rue; B. Morrison, manager; B. Scott, coach.
 SECOND ROW: J. Feldpaush; D. Neighbors; R. Graman; E. Wynn; G. Hagedorn; K. Neighbors.
 CHEERLEADERS LEFT TO RIGHT: G. Hagedorn; C. Smith; K. Snyder; G. Sisley.

Before a Varsity team can achieve its goals it must have talented members with plenty of experience. This is just what Coach Merkel sacrifices to the Varsity coach each season. This year the Junior Varsity was able to capture the PAC Conference Title, win the Holiday Tourney, and to achieve a very impressionable 18-2 record. We can be sure of seeing plenty of action in the future from these fine ball handlers.

GOLF is in full swing

Heritage Hills' golfers prepare for 18 holes at Christmas Lake Country Club.

Heritage Hills put strength, experience, and youth together and formed the Patriot's gold team. Under the direction of coach H. Bennett, the golfers have picked up pointers from him as well as each other to prove that golf can be a team sport.
